WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE? DATA LOSS - DATA LEAKAGE - DATA EXFILTRATION

 Download & read full article

Keeping up with the latest cybersecurity stories can be overwhelming and numbing experience, given the sheer numbers of hacks and leaks that take place nearly every day. In today's 'information age', the loss, leakage or theft of data can have severe consequences. Since both data-loss, data-leakage and data-theft result in business harm, knowing the difference between each might seem rather pointless, as the consequence is mostly the same – However, knowing the differences can save you considerable investment, resources and valuable time in mitigating such risks.

To find out what is the difference, read the article.
Enjoy.
