Have you ever been guilty of hitting the 'send button' to the wrong person in an email? Don't worry, you are not alone. We are all human and we all make mistakes. That's part of our DNA.

That's why I wrote this article. Because sometimes other external factors affect the way we work and make us more prone to executing an unintentional error... which could be devastating to the business.

This article will articulate the four focus areas that will help you drive positive employee engagement and drive down the accidental data leak.

To find out more, read the article.

Enjoy.
