article

When your employee projects his negative attitude to others, what do you do? Do you ignore it? Do you sweep it under the carpet? Or, do you fire the employee?

Everyone has the right NOT to be bullied or harassed at work.

A toxic employee can cause massive harm to the organisation. It's a "de-energizing", frustrating and very risky situation that organisations are faced. A toxic employee can easily channel their energies to destructive measures.

Can your business withstand such an employee?
